Extracts from the Laws of the College.

"With a view to preserve all the public exercises of the students from impropriety of any kind, every student, during the whole of his senior year, and previously to his commencement performances especially, shall at least two weeks before the delivery, show to the president the whole of what he proposes to speak."

"On the day of Commencement the candidates for degrees shall perform such exercises as shall be appointed them, and no candidate shall refuse the exercises assigned him, under penalty of being refused his diploma"

A Commencement exercise should be of such a length as not to occupy more than eight minutes in its delivery.

Signed by order of the Faculty,

Clerk.

My dear Brother,

I enclose Mr Dwight Bele received on Saturday. "Grandma Meads and Aunt Sarah" have been here since Thursday evening, and will remain until next week. The old gentleman has been ill with a penn in his side, but is better.

All of us here well. If any body should say that we have not heard from Washington lately very often, I should "not contradict it."

(In haste)

Your's as ever Stephen A.

Stephen Alexander. A. M.

Might it not be as well to send me an order on the Phil. Fund for Maps purchased — before Commencement. They cost $12; which I paid when I sent for them.
